John 14:6

“I AM: The Way, The Truth, & The Life”

Jesus saith unto him,
I am the way, the truth,
and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Does, as some contend,
“THE” in “the way,
the truth, and the life”,
merely mean “one” or “a”?

Is Jesus just one of MANY ways to the Father?

Many Christians find it hard to believe this verse could garner vehement hatred from others, especially from some who call themselves Christians.

The reality is that the belief in Jesus as being the only way to the Father, has, does, and will, continue to be a major issue.

It is a sore spot and frustration, not only for those who openly reject Jesus as the Messiah, but also among many who are associated with Christianity.
